

Samuel Georgian

Seattle, WA

716-307-8607

samuelgeorgian@gmail.com

About Me

I am a Seattle Mountaineers member with a background in climbing and mountaineering. I live in Seattle with my wife and dog, and am always eager to get outdoors. When I'm not adventuring, I'm a marine biologist at a non-profit dedicated to saving our oceans.

Experience (*Official Mountaineers climb)

- Basic alpine climbing graduate (2018) with the Mountaineers, mentored by Scott Shafer
- Lead sport routes up to 5.10c
- Lead trad routes up to 5.8
- Boulder up to V4
- Alpine Climbs: Liberty Bell (Becky Route, follow), South Early Winter Spire* (South Arête, lead), The Tooth (South Face, lead).
- Glacier Climbs: Colchuck Peak* (East Route), Eldorado Peak* (East Ridge), Glacier Peak (White Chuck/Cool), Mt. Baker* (Coleman), Mt. Hood (South Side), Mt. Rainier (Disappointment Cleaver), Sahale Peak (Sahale Glacier)
- Scrambles: Dragontail Peak*, Mt. Adams (South Climb), Mt. St. Helens (Monitor Ridge), Mt. Wow, Sloan Peak*
- Ski tours: Camp Muir, Mt. St. Helens, Snow Lake Divide

Skills

- Competent in lead belaying and rappelling with GriGri, tube-style, and Munter Hitch
- Crevasse and basic rock rescue techniques
- Competent in leading and cleaning single and multi-pitch sport and trad climbs
- Wilderness First Aid certified through Remote Medical International (2018)
- Front Country Leader and Hike Leader with the Mountaineers

Outdoor Volunteerism

- Mountaineers: Basic Alpine Small Instructional Group (SIG) co-leader (2018-2019)
- American Alpine Club: trail work at Index (2018)
- Cheasty Greenspace: tree planting (2018)
- Mountaineers: Introduction to Rock – instructor (2018)
- Mountaineers: Basic Glacier Travel – instructor (2018)
- Mountaineers: Wilderness First Aid – scenario volunteer (2018)

Other Outdoor Activities

- Mountain biking, cycling, snowshoeing, trail running, photography, SCUBA diving/snorkeling, kayaking, skiing